DEATH ON AN OLD LADY,-Mrs. Banks. Wheeling, departed this life at her late residence, on John street. Mrs. B had resided for sixty years within a square or two of the house in which she died-an unusual circumstance, even among those of a former generation.

RESIDENCE SOLD .- Our young friend, George A. Wickham, the auctioneer, (not George E. as the Register had it,) sold a day or two since the fine brick residence in Centre Wheeling, occupied by the late John Hamilton at the time of his death, for $8,600 (not $8,000 as the Register stated.) Capt. Andrew Wilson was the purchaser.

THE LECTURE LAST NIGHT.-Despite the heavy snow storm, last night, every seat in Washington Hall was occupied to hear Mr. Gough's great lecture on "Habit." We have neither time nor space to give the faintest out-line of the lecture, and must content ourselves with saying that it was fully up to the expectations of our people, and there is no man living from whom so much is expected by an audience in Wheeling as from Mr. Gough. The general expression last night was that there is but one Gough and that he is without a peer in the lecture-world.

POLICE COURT .- Another "full house" at police court yesterday morning. Verily, Sergeant Davis and his deputies are secoping up the effenders at a brisk rate. The number of cases each morning is not so large, but it is getting to be a steady, regular business of a fair average

The following cases were before His Honor, yesterday morning: Edward Reid, Jr., drunk, two dollars and costs; Robt. Miller, same, same fine; John Murphy, disorderly, five dollars and costs. Payment in the last case was suspended on condition that the party would get himself out of the city with the least possible delay. Murphy, like Hayes, mentioned in the report of Tuesday's mornprovided for impecunious travelers, in Fifth across Zane street. Referred. the hotel de Wallace. CHARGE WITHDRAWN .- Monday evening Thomas Cruddis, a denizen of East Wheeling made things so lively within intoxicated however, that Rso. L. would not go into an investigation of the charge, and in default of giving bail for his appearance, Cruddis was committed to jail "to sober up." Tuesday afternoon he was brought out for examination, when his wife, under promise on his part to conduct himself more properly in the future, consented to withdraw the charge.

Later.-The foregoing had not been der, and made affidavit that her, husband spective owners in four equal annual inhad became more violent than ever, had spective owners in four equal annual inpermit the prisoner to be removed from stallments, and the money so collected iail as he had already been committed on was at once issued and placed in the hands of officer Prettyman, who proceeded to make the arrest, which he ac complished after considerable difficulty. Mrs. Cruddis' testimony was heard, and cil, the cost of constructing another foot ed in favor of Mr. McC. fully corroborated the charge. Esqr. sewer from the northeast corner of Mon-L. demanded security in $100 to keep the roe and Market streets. Adopted. peace one year, and in default, committed the prisoner to jail.
